"A Caring Community of Faith"

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Jane and I are humbled, thrilled and excited to be named as your new pastoral family. You are not new to us, as we have been privileged to worship with you for almost a year now since our move to Gainesboro last July. That makes it doubly exciting to look forward to serving you and sharing God's love!

You have been in the good hands of Tim and Staci for the past six years and we have all been blessed by their ministry. We thank them and wish them Godspeed in their new appointment, and know that Hartsville's church and community will be blessed as well.

Now, for those of you who want the "real scoop" on your new pastor, here's more than you probably ever wanted to know...

Dr. Joseph C. Beavon is a native of Bellaire, Ohio. He holds degrees from Union College in Kentucky, the Methodist Theological School in Ohio and Slidell Baptist Seminary in Louisiana. He is a retired member of the West

Ohio Conference and has served churches throughout Ohio.

His other ministries have included ministry to maximum security delinquent girls for the state of Ohio; Director of Communications and Community Relations for Lutheran Social Services of the Miami Valley (Dayton, Ohio); Executive Director of the American Lung Association of the Miami Valley (Dayton, Ohio); Director of Development for the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra; Director of Development for the Baton Rouge Symphony; Director of Development for Historic Rugby (Rugby, TN); and high school mentor in Barbourville, Kentucky with the AmeriCorps program. Joe has also taught courses at Youngstown State University, the University of Dayton, Kaplan College and Brightwood College.

He is a member of the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels; former president of the Religious Public Relations Council of the Miami Valley (Dayton, OH) and a former member of the United Methodist Association of Communicators where he has received more than two dozen awards for writing, editing and photography.

Joe and his wife Jane have five children, six grandchildren, a perfect one year old great granddaughter, one cat and three dogs. Joe and Jane and the four critters live happily ever after in Gainesboro, Tennessee, and thank God every day for placing us here!

United Women
in Faith

We are United Women in Faith, formerly UMW! We are a sisterhood united in God's love to transform and impact local and world communities! Our mission is to nurture and connect through Christian faith. All donations that we receive during the year go toward mission work. The month of June we will do a fundraiser for United Women in Faith, there will be a receptacle in the foyer if you would like to give or you can give the money to Stella Cain or Kathy Warren.

We believe love in action
can change the world.

Please join us for our monthly meetings every 3rd Monday at 1:00 in the BASIC SS room. Thank you!
