"A Caring Community of Faith"

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Greetings Friends!

Once again, it is my pleasure to introduce myself as your new pastor.

Let me begin by telling you that I plan to be in my office most Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10-1, unless I have an outside appointment. One exception will be the week of July 10 when my wife will be having eye surgery. I, of course, will be available for emergency calls at any time.

The best way for me to get to know you is through brief visits in your home. I look forward to your invitations in that regard.

The following Sunday schedule is subject to change:

July 3 - Guest Speaker

July 10 - Getting To Know One Another: A CONVERSATION With The Pastor

July 17 - Important or Urgent Luke 10: 38-42

July 24 - Hearing God's Call Psalm 85

July 31 - Old and New Clothes
Colossians 3: 8-14

Bring a friend to church!

I look forward to seeing you!

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming? Whose broad stripes and bright stars thru the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming? And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep, where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes, what is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep, as it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses? Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam, in full glory reflected now shines in the stream: 'Tis the star-spangled banner! Oh long may it wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore that the havoc of war and the battle's confusion, a home and a country should leave us no more! Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution. No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave: And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved home and the war's desolation! Blest with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued land. Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just, and this be our motto:

"In God is our trust."

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!
