SPRING HAS SPRUNG

And the mountains echo
A strange kind of song
Daffodils hummed along
A longing to bloom
An unchained melody
That's hollowed and soft
A yearning for the tenderness of springtide
Tulips tilt their heads
Towards the sun seeking
It's reverent warmth
Daffodils entreat for rain
Upon their heads
And parched blades
Of grass hail the Taste of dew
Such is the crisp and
Sharp enchantment
That Spring time brings.

On March 18, the United Women in Faith met in the BASIC Sunday School room at 1:00pm

Stella Cain opened the meeting, and we talked about people who needed our prayers right now. Janet gave the devotional. Sheryle Bruno gave the minutes from the last meeting and Kathy Warren read our financial report. We have given our 10% to the district and we discussed where we would put the remainder of our money, we all decided to to give the money to;
